

CHERISHED EARTH

Papa-tū-ā-nuku – he taonga, he tapu

A Climate Justice Initiative of the Anglican Diocese of Auckland

description	St Andrew's, Pukekohe
*=required	The Reverend Jan Wallace
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Food Garden	(09) 238 7228
<input type="checkbox"/> Food Forest	pukekoheanglicanchurch@xtra.co.nz
*Location+gmap	31-37 Queen St, Pukekohe PO Box 338 Pukekohe 2340
* Contour
description
Legal Status
* Any Easements?
History
Natural features
* Site area (m ²)
* Access
* Aspect
* Drainage
* Underground & aerial services
Temperature range	Typical for Auckland: temperature range from -1 to 32 degrees, frost prone June – September. Suitable to grow wide range of seasonal crops and fruit trees including heritage varieties requiring 'chilling' and temperate/subtropical species and cultivars once micro climates are created by planting shelter and buffer zone plants.
* Micro climates
* Water access
* Wind and shelter
Sun Path
Soil type/profile
* Soil Test
Security
Limiting Fact
Transport

